SUPERVISED RELEASE VIOLATION

The defendant appeared before the Court on August 2, 2019 for a detention hearing regarding Petition for Offender Under Supervision [42]. Michael F. Maloney represented the defendant. Matt Lierman represented the government.

The court finds that the defendant failed to meet his burden to establish by clear and convincing evidence that he will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or to the community. Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6); 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1). The government's motion for detention is granted as to risk of flight and danger and the defendant shall be detained until further order of the Court.

The defendant shall be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or designated representative for confinement in a correctional facility and shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. Upon order of a United States court or upon request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
